The tenth yahrzeit of

Rabbi Dr. Joseph B. Soloveitchik pray

makes us all the more aware of the terrible loss we have suffered with his passing. But his Torah remains, continuing to inspire us to learn and to live a life of Torah and mizvot enriched by an appreciation of the intellectual and social world around us.

תנ"ט לברктן
We sadly record the death of Rabbi Dr. Walter Wurzburger ק"מ

whose professional and personal life was devoted to the enhancement of Torah u-Madda.

May his memory be a blessing as his life was an inspiration.

תנ"ס צ'שו
We extend to Mr. Richard Joel our warmest congratulations upon his investiture as the fourth president of Yeshiva University.

Combining broad vision, firm principles, and administrative wisdom, President Joel is also a keen listener who is ever sensitive to the needs and aspirations of those whom he leads.

With God’s help, Yeshiva University and the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary will enjoy productive and exciting years under his dedicated leadership, inspired by his unwavering commitment to excellence in both Torah and madda.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR CONTRIBUTORS

The Torah u-Madda Journal publishes manuscripts that either (1) address the question of Judaism’s relationship to general culture, whether in the broad sense or in the context of a specific discipline or field; or (2) exemplify the integration of Jewish and general knowledge in the treatment of a specific topic. The journal appears annually.

Manuscripts should be submitted in triplicate hard copy, typed on 8 1/2” x 11” paper with ample margins on all sides. All material should be double spaced, including notes and block quotations. Notes should appear at the end of the manuscript, beginning on a new page, rather than as footnotes on the bottoms of the pages. Use the automatic note numbering feature of your word processing program when you compose the endnotes, so that notes can easily be renumbered if necessary. After a manuscript is accepted, the author will be expected to supply an electronic file.

The author’s name should not be disclosed on the manuscript, as the journal’s policy is to withhold this information from referees. The following information should be included on a separate cover sheet: author’s name, professional affiliation, mailing address, telephone and fax numbers, and e-mail address.

A guide to our transliteration style and reference format appears in the back of this issue.

Manuscripts and letters intended for publication should be sent to: Dr. David Shatz, Editor, The Torah u-Madda Journal, Stern College for Women, Yeshiva University, 245 Lexington Avenue, New York, NY 10016. Correspondence other than submissions may be sent to the editor at Shatz@yu.edu.
