II. ידיעות that Emerge from the דף Questions

- 1) What is the case of "טמון", and what's the דין in such a case?
- 2) (Based on רש"י) When the Torah uses the word "עד", to how many witnesses is the Torah referring?
- 3) (Based on רש"י) What's the reason that Reuven is פטור מדיני אדם if he invalidated מי חטאת by doing מלאכה with the water?

III. The תוספות List with Questions

ד"ה: אילימא דמטיא ליה...

- In order for Reuven to be liable/exempt for killing Shimon by tying him and leaving him to the mercy of the scorching sun, where exactly must Reuven have tied him up? Why does it make a difference where Reuven tied him up?

ד"ה: אלא לחבריה

- If we discover that Reuven hired false witnesses to testify that Shimon owes money to Reuven's poverty-stricken brother, under what circumstances do/don't we compel Reuven to compensate Shimon?
- Is there any difference if Reuven merely asked the witnesses to testify falsely, but didn't actually hire them? What's the reason for the דין?

ד"ה: פשיטא...

- If Reuven knows testimony for Shimon but neglects to testify, is he subject to "ונשא עון"?

ד"ה: כסויי כסיתיה

- Reuven saw that Shimon's BBQ was going to light Levi's pile of grain on fire, so Reuven covered the pile of grain with some sheets to protect the grain. Ultimately, though, the pile of grain caught on fire. Why would Reuven be חייב בדיני שמים for suffering Levi a loss by rendering his pile "טמון", if his intentions were honorable?
